RUG SALE

AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Reverend Reed Brings Witnesses on the Stand.

THEY TELL OF THE BETTER LAND

It Was the Old, Old Story of Jesus and His Love—And Yet 'Tis an Ever True Story, Which Humanity Listens to With Rapt Attention—Jesus as a Witness.

The members of this church continue to worship in Young Men's Christian association hall. Contributions are still coming in at the hands of generous donors, and the outlook is that the congregation will, in the near future, worship God under the shadow of their own vine and fig tree, so to speak. Song service is a very pleasing feature in connection with divine service in this congregation.

There was a nice audience present last night when the pastor commenced his talk to the people, and an impressive talk it was, dealing especially with the wonderful love and mercy which God ever extends to suffering, sinful humanity. After a pathetic introduction, speaking of the great sorrow of the loving heart of a bereaved mother, mourning over the death of her adored little girl, transplanted from earth to heaven by the Master, the speaker branched out on the great desire of the human heart and soul for a higher and better life.

"We can reason and we can philoso-phize over this matter, over heaven and its glories and raptures; but, after all, we must turn to Revelations, to the word of the living God, when we desire absolute testimony. The apostle Paul speaks very plainly of heaven, and his description is as of one who has been permitted to look into the glorious city, in order that he might give unto us a faint idea or conception of the beauties of the heaven which God has prepared for the faithful. Listen to Paul: "I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell; God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven. And I knew such a man, (whether in the body or out of the body, I cannot tell; God knoweth;) how that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter." Wonderful words, are they not. The apostle had evidently seen and heard that which he dare not describe or give utterance to, in all its fullness. Paul had been to heaven and returned again to earth. What burning eloquence he must have possessed as he described Jesus and his love unto the heaven, until they wished to make a god of the apostle and fall down and worship him. Listen to Paul again:
'Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.' Do you want still better testimony? If I desired to go among a foreign people, in a strange land, I would study the language and habits of that people as fully as possible. If you really desire to learn of heaven and its glories, its wondrous pleasures and enjoyments, then take Jesus, the Christ, as your all-sufficient guide and witness; Jesus, the testator of testators. Christ knew all about heaven and its glories. He talked much about heaven while here upon earth, and urged his disciples to lay up their treasures there. Calling his disciples about him he said: 'In my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.' Glorious words, are they not? Words of promise, sure to be fulfilled. An absolute promise from Jesus to humanity; to those who are faithful and who persevere. Christ, the son of God. He who was rich, yet became poor for our sake. He who had ignominy and insult heaped upon him, and bore it all for our sake. Think of his glorious testimony as to heaven and eternal life.

"John, on the isle of Patmos, we shall call as our next witness. On that lonely island, cut off from the cherished companionship of his life, God took pity on him and gave unto him glorious visions of the world beyond—of that which we call heaven; of the New Jerusalem.
John tried to describe the beautiful city to us, telling us that 'there is no pain there, nor sorrow, nor crying, nor death.' Thank God for such testimony, given unto us from the very home and throne of the Almighty.

"What then is heaven? A place where joy indescribable abounds.
Humanity cannot enter there. It would not do for us to have a full sight, a full knowledge of heaven. It seems to me that if this were possible, then would we become unfitted for the duties which God has called upon us to perform on this earth, such would be our eagerness to enter heaven and thus be freed from toil, sorrow, sin and suffering. God's wisdom is exemplified in keeping the veil between us and the glory land.

"Where is heaven. The little child points up to it; imagines heaven far above and beyond the stars. Angels came from heaven to earth and visited Christ upon the cross; visited him in the garden; came to the weeping women at the sepulcher. John, on the isle of Patmos, gave a wonderful description of a new heaven and a new earth, where dwelleth righteousness. Where is heaven? What shall we be like if we are permitted to enter there? Humanity cannot locate heaven. We have the word of God that it exists. Humanity cannot tell what we shall be like. But we have the word of God that we shall be like Him. The way to heaven is through the efficacy of the blood of Jesus, as applied by and to yourself.
This is the way, and the only way. You can have heaven as your very own. Will you accept the precious gift offered you by the Son of God?"

THE OLD LEAGUE.

An Effort Is Being Made to Revive a Famous Organization.

Charles Daniels, of Toronto, is making an effort to reorganize the old Ohio valley league. It is proposed to include in the league East Liverpool, Toronto, New Cumberland, Wellsburg, Martin's Ferry, Bellaire and probably Steubenville. A schedule will be arranged, and two games a week will be played if the league is formed. The team in this city is perfectly willing to enter the association, and the boys have no fear that the pennant will go to any other town.

George Carey will know positively tomorrow morning what will be done with his case by Philadelphia.

Alf Shaw has the honor of being the only famed player in the Eastern league.
He belongs to Pittsburgh, but will play the season with Syracuse.

In the first game at Fall River Mc-Nicol had three hits to his credit and McCurran two.

LAID TO REST.

The Funeral of Richard Gardner Took Place Yesterday.

place from St. Stephen's Episcopal church yesterday afternoon. The beautiful and impressive Masonic burial service was conducted by Riddle lodge, and Rev.
Charles O'Meara passed through the equally beautiful ritual of the church.
The reverend gentleman announced that the usual rule would be laid aside, and friends would be allowed to view the remains. The church was crowded to the doors, the Masons, Mystic Circle Phoenix club and many other friends being present. The pall bearers were Masons who are also Phoenix men.
There was an abundance of flowers, the last tributes of those who loved and honored Dick Gardner, when, as a light hearted, happy boy he was the favorite of all who knew him. Peace to his ashes.

A NUISANCE.

One Thing the Health Board Might Do
Before It Retires.

The board of health can do at least one more good turn for West End before it steps down and out, and people in that part of the city think it should lose no time in doing it. The nuisance to be suppressed is a cesspool in the Lisbon road that has for many months been a source of annoyance as well as a menace to the health of the entire community. The board have been notified of the matter, but to the present nothing has been done. A well known West End man suggests that the members make themselves solid with West End by taking this action before they leave the public's service.

PENNSYLVANIA PROPOSITION

Will Be Submitted to the New Council
Without Delay.

The new council will be given a chance to settle the difficulty with the Pennsylvania company in regard to the Eighth street culvert. The last communication from the company is still in the hands of Solicitor Grosshans, and
will be submitted to the new council.
In the minds of several of the old council, it is an exceedingly fair proposition, but they did not wish to tie the hands of the new body in any way.

Church Entertainments.

The Sunday school class of Miss Maggie Hague, young ladies, will next Saturday give a social in Bradshaw hall.
The class takes this means to raise its part of the donation of the Sunday school to the new church fund.

The young ladies of the First Presbyterian church have arranged an excellent program of tableaux and music for an entertainment to be given next

City Must Answer For the

IN BEHALF OF THE CHILDREN

William Hayes, Administrator, Asks the Court For Damages—It Will Be a Hard Fought Battle, J. H. Brookes Being Assisted by Billingsley, Taylor & Clark.

While the parade of the Forpaugh-Sells circus was passing through Fifth street May 13 of last year, a team of horses owned by the city and driven by Thomas Bryan became frightened, and dashing through the crowd at Washington street killed Mrs. Caroline Hayes, of East End. Today common pleas court was asked to compel East Liverpool to pay $10,000 for the accident.

The petition was filed by Jason H.
Brookes, at the instance of William Hayes, husband of the deceased. He claims that Bryan halted the horses in Washington street and allowed them to stand, although it was crowded with people and he had been warned of the approach of the circus and the danger of the noise and animals. He paid no attention to the warning, and the horses ran away. Gross carelessness on the part of an employee of the city is alleged, and the amount is asked for the six small children who were by the happening deprived of their mother. Billingsley, Tayler & Clark have been retained with Mr. Brookes, and one of the hardest fought legal battles of the year will be
go to the supreme court before it is settled.

Readers of the NEWS REVIEW will recall the accident. The street force had stopped a few moments before at the First National bank, and afterward drove up Washington street, waiting at Fifth until the parade appeared. When the horses became unmanageable the force slipped out at the rear of the wagon, and Bryan succeeded in stopping his team after they had gone through the crowd. Not less than 15 persons were knocked down and hurt, but Mrs. Hayes

In Order That John Krepps Be Kept at College.

Yesterday afternoon at the 4 o'clock meeting of the Young Men's Christian association Reverend Salmon and Secretary Charles presented the case of John Krepps, whom the East End people are educating at Scio college, and a collection of $18 was taken for his benefit.

The membership of the association now numbers 253.

The baseball game to be played Friday night will be between the board of

Water Will Be Shut Off Where Leakage Is Found.

Superintendent Morley and force tomorrow morning will begin a house to house canvass, inspecting the water pipes in each residence to see if there is any leakage. The water will be shut off where a leak is found. The object of the canvass is to prevent all waste of water. A notice is published today in order that all may be given a chance to inspect their own property and make repairs before the superintendent arrives.

NO MORE SHOOTING.

The Season For Ducks Closed Last Saturday.

The season for shooting ducks closed last Saturday, and it is unlawful to shoot them now in this state. All game birds and animals are out of season with the exception of snipe which are not protected in this state. The woodcock season will open in July, and squirrel can be killed after Sept. 1. In Ohio meadow larks are protected as song birds, and it is therefore unlawful to

James McCaully May Start a Door and Sash Factory.

James McCaully, a prominent lumber dealer of Sterling, Mich., was in the city several days last week looking up a location for a door and sash factory.
He said to a reporter Saturday that he was greatly impressed with the city, and he believed he would locate here.
There is a good market here, he believes, and the prospects are such as to justify him investing his money.

Mrs. Green Fainted.

Saturday evening about 11 o'clock a fight occurred in Sixth street in front of a saloon near the Diamond. Mrs.

child in her arms. The men fell against her, and she dropped the child, which luckily was caught by her father, who was passing at the time. Mrs. Green fainted and was conveyed to her home,

MINISTERS HERE.

They Are Attending the Regular Meeting of the Presbytery.

The Steubenville presbytery of the United Presbyterian church will meet this evening in the First United Presbyterian church.

This afternoon the Ministerial association, which is composed of the ministers between here and Wheeling, is holding a session. The association is purely for social purposes, and has been organized but a short time. A paper by W.
M. Butler, of Cadiz, on "Between the Testaments," was read and listened to with rapt attention. Tonight at 7:30 the presbytery will convene, and will be addressed by Rev. J. G. Madge, of Carrollton. Tomorrow trial sermons from the students will be heard, and some of them will be licensed to preach.

Solicitor Grosshans Wants the Vehicle Matter Settled.

Solicitor Grosshans has requested Attorney Brookes to include an expressman and teamster in the recent suit filed by him against the city to recover the vehicle license paid by an undertaker and liveryman. The object is to have the decision of the judge settle the whole matter at once and to prevent all further lawsuits. The question to be settled is whether the license does not become a tax, and applies to teamsters and expressmen as well as to liverymen and undertakers. Thirty-nine vouchers were returned to Clerk Hanley by Attorney Brookes Saturday morning, the owners not having called for their money.

DOCTOR McLANE DEAD.

A Well-Known Cumberland Physician
Died This Morning.

Thomas Lloyd received the sad news this morning that Dr. P. C. McLane had died at his home in New Cumberland at 8 o'clock. The funeral will take place Wednesday. Doctor McLane was well known here, and was for many years one of the leading practitioners of Hancock county. During the war he was a surgeon in the service. Mrs. Taylor, wife of Daniel Taylor, late manager of the Chelsea, was his daughter. Deceased was 75 years old.

Some of the Sick.

A. R. Gould, of Washington street, is very ill at his home, suffering with pneumonia. No one was allowed to see him yesterday.

Eva, the seven-year-old daughter of Len Moreland, of Avondale street, is quite sick.

Miss McCreedy, of Avondale street, who has been very ill for some time, is still very sick.

The Sparring Exhibition.

Arrangements have been completed for the sparring exhibition to be given this evening at the rooms of the East Liverpool Athletic club, and the entertainment promises to be the best of the kind ever seen in this section.

Arranging a Date.

The picnic committee of Trades and Labor Council met Saturday evening and decided to hold the library picnic at Rock Spring. They are meeting this afternoon with Manager McDonald and arranging the date.

A Good Sermon.

Rev. Dr. Marsh preached an interesting sermon last evening in the First M.
E. church. His subject was "Advantages of a Higher Education." Reverend Marsh laid especial stress upon the bible in connection with the public schools.

Will Go Higher.

Judgment for $7.15 was rendered this morning against the East Liverpool pottery in favor of William Poyer. It is claimed by the plaintiff he had not received his full wages. The case will be carried to court.

Will Build a New Mill.

Plans for a new flour mill to be erected by Christian Metch have been received.
It is expected by Mr. Metch to sell his present mill at Elmore, and after his trip to Germany to start work on the new one.

Will Submit a Report.

Solicitor Grosshans tomorrow evening will submit a report of the McKeown case to council, but has not yet decided upon the nature of the report.

Knights at Church.

The Knights of Pythias will attend services at St. Stephen's church next Sunday afternoon. The service will start at 2 o'clock.

LOOKED ON THE BEER

Then They Absorbed More
Than Was Needed.

And Justice Was Working at the Old Stand
This Morning—A Few Cases Which Served to Swell the City's Treasury and Acted as Good Lessons.

In Mayor Gilbert's court today there were quite a number of cases. Most of them were charged with being drunk.
Others with being disorderly on the highways. The cases were easily disposed of, and upon each was a fine imposed.

Joe Prosser was the first offender called. He was arrested in company with John Burns, and they were making this presence known around the Horn switch by debating about the municipal league in a very loud manner. When asked what he had for defense, he said
drinking freely most of the day.

doubt in my mind that the municipal league could do some good work with you, but at the same time you must contribute $6.75 toward the city funds." He paid promptly and was dismissed. His side issue, Mr. Burns, is a hard working man, and in order to collect another full week's wages he also paid $6.60, and was set at liberty. Officers Terroneo and McMillan made the arrests.

John Monogan had a chance to ride in the patrol last night. Chief Johnson had his eagle eye on the gentleman for some time, and when the chance came a charge of drunkenness was placed against him, which resulted in his being ordered to contribute to the city funds to the extent of $6.60. He was set at liberty and is now enjoying life as best he can.

drunk and acting disorderly in Smoky Row," said the mayor to Pat Mooney when he was arraigned. "Well, I guess you're right," retorted the individual. The mayor, with tears in his eyes, said: "Pat, I dislike to tell you, but we are shy a few cents. I will have to ask you for $6.60, and if you can't give us that amount you can stay with us for a few days," and Pat nodded his assent.

Officer Whan concluded Joseph Temabee was not in condition to roam the streets, and taking compassion on the gentleman escorted him to the city home.
When he was arraigned it was found the city still wanted a few more cents to fill it, and it was very kind in Joseph to make up the $6.60 shortage. Now that all the stray coin had been collected, his honor decided to go to the bank, and Fred Wolf was ordered to clean up the office for the next hearing.

A Meeting.

The trustees of the Christian church will assemble at the residence of C. C.
Thompson this evening to transact some important business.

A Funeral.

The little Clendenning child, who died at its home in California hollow, was buried this afternoon, Reverend Reed officiating.

Hurt Her Ankle.

Mrs. Samuel Jackson, of Franklin street, this morning slipped and fell on a board walk at her home, spraining her ankle severely.

LAID TO REST.

The Funeral of Richard Gardner Took Place Yesterday.

was conducted by Riddle lodge, and Rev.
equally beautiful ritual of the church.
the doors, the Masons, Mystic Circle
Phoenix club and many other friends
being present. The pall bearers were Masons who are also Phoenix men.
ashes.

Before It Retires.

one more good turn for West End be-
menace to the health of the entire community. The board have been notified of the matter, but to the present nothing
public's service.

Will Be Submitted to the New Council
Without Delay.

will be submitted to the new council.
In the minds of several of the old council, it is an exceedingly fair proposition,
of the new body in any way.

Church Entertainments.

Maggie Hague, young ladies, will next
school to the new church fund.

terian church have arranged an excel-

William Hayes, Administrator, Asks the
sisted by Billingsley, Taylor & Clark.

ton street killed Mrs. Caroline Hayes, of East End. Today common pleas court
pay $10,000 for the accident.

The petition was filed by Jason H.
Brookes, at the instance of William
stand, although it was crowded with people and he had been warned of the
the team becoming frightened at the noise and animals. He paid no atten-
settled.

force slipped out at the rear of the wagon,

College.

association Reverend Salmon and Secretary Charles presented the case of John
tion of $18 was taken for his benefit.

now numbers 253.

The baseball game to be played Fri-

Water Will Be Shut Off Where Leakage Is Found.

repairs before the superintendent arrives.

urday.

James McCauly May Start a Door and Sash Factory.

James McCauly, a prominent lumber
a location for a door and sash factory.
He said to a reporter Saturday that he
was greatly impressed with the city,
justify him investing his money.

Mrs. Green Fainted.

fight occurred in Sixth street in front of a saloon near the Diamond. Mrs.

fainted and was conveyed to her home,

MINISTERS HERE.

They Are Attending the Regular Meeting
of the Presbytery.

terian church.

ters between here and Wheeling, is holding a session. The association is purely
ized but a short time. A paper by W.
them will be licensed to preach.

Solicitor Grosshans has requested Attorney Brookes to include an expressman and teamster in the recent suits
owners not having called for their money.

DOCTOR M'LANE DEAD.

A Well-Known Cumberland Physician
Died This Morning.

died at his home in New Cumberland at
surgeon in the service. Mrs. Taylor,
was 75 years old.

Some of the Sick.

him yesterday.

quite sick.

still very sick.

Liverpool Athletic club, and the enter-
kind ever seen in this section.

Arranging a Date.

The picnic committee of Trades and
arranging the date.

A Good Sermon.

Rev. Dr. Marsh preached an interesting sermon last evening in the First M.
E. church. His subject was "Advantages
of a Higher Education." Reverend

Will Go Higher.

morning against the East Liverpool pottery in favor of William Poyser. It is
carried to court.

by Christian Metsch have been received.
It is expected by Mr. Metsch to sell his
new one.

Will Submit a Report.

will submit a report of the McKoyn
upon the nature of the report.

start at 2 o'clock.

Then They Absorbed More
Than Was Needed.

This Morning—A Few Cases Which
Acted as Good Lessons.

In Mayor Gilbert's court today there
posed.

called. He was arrested in company

week's wages he also paid $6.60, and was set at liberty. Officers Terrence and McMillan made the arrests.

John Monagan had a chance to ride
ordered to contribute to the city funds to the extent of $6.60. He was set at liberty and is now enjoying life as best he can.

guess you're right," retorted the individual. The mayor, with tears in his eyes,
a few days," and Pat nodded his assent.

Temabe was not in condition to roam
gentleman escorted him to the city home.
that all the stray coin had been collected,

A Meeting.

will assemble at the residence of C. C.
important business.

A Funeral.

The little Clendenen child, who died at its home in California hollow,
was buried this afternoon, Reverend Reed officiating.

Hurt Her Ankle.

Mrs. Samuel Jackson, of Franklin
her ankle severely.

Still With Us.

There are still a few cases of measles in town. Six new cases are reported today.

GREAT LOSS BY FLOOD.

Startling Figures Issued by Secretary Wilson.

15,800 SQUARE MILES INUNDATED.

Nearly 400,000 People Live in the Flooded District—About 29,500 Farms

Covered by the Water—Interests Involving Millions of Dollars Affected.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—A statement relative to the agricultural interests of the submerged districts of the Mississippi valley south of Cairo, Ills., has been issued by the department of agriculture.

The total area under water on April 6 was about 15,800 square miles, of which 7,900 square miles was in Mis-issippi, 4,500 miles in Arkansas, 1,750 miles in Missouri, 1,200 in Tennessee and 450 in Louisiana. This region contained in 1890, so far as can be determined in view of the somewhat indefinite boundary lines of the flood, a population of 379,655, of which 183,489 or about one half, was in Mississippi, 190, 235 in Arkansas, and the remainder almost equally divided between Missouri and Tennessee. Taking the entire region the entire colored popula-

proportion of 12 to 7, the colored predominating in the flooded districts of

five to one. In Arkansas in that of two to one. In Missouri and Tennessee the

largely white, in the former state in

latter in that of two to one.

about 18,500 are in Mississippi, nearly

about equally divided between Mis-

etc., is about $55,000,000, and here also the proportions in the different states are about the same as above

of an average value of about $18 an acre

are under water in the country lying between the Mississippi and Yazoo provinces, including some of the most productive lands of the state. Their livestock, even at the present low prices, is valued nearly $3,500,000, and the farmers and planters are estimated to have about $2,000,000 worth of the crops of last year still on hand.

Arkansas stands next in the extent of its imperiled interests, nearly 10,000 farms containing 1,000,000 acres of land, worth over $14,000,000, being submerged. These farms contain live stock to the value of over $1,500,000, and crops unsold and unconsumed to the value of nearly $300,000, the entire agricultural interests of these lands representing a value not far short of $17,- 000,000.

The agricultural interests affected in Missouri represent a total capital of rather over $9,000,000, the 5,300 submerged farms containing an area of about 470,000 acres, worth about $7,250,- 000, the live stock representing nearly $1,500,000 more, and the crops on hand another $500,000. Tennessee is not far behind Missouri in the extent of its imperiled interests, the number and acreage of the submerged farms being very nearly the same, and the entire value, including $1,250,000 for live stock and $400,000 for crops on hand, being over $8,500,000.

What effect the flood will have upon the crops of the present season depends upon the length of its continuance and

to Raise Crops.

MEMPHIS, April 12.—The water in the Mississippi delta is slowly receding.

Reports received here from the over-

spirits.

At Greenville the river as well as the back water surrounding the town is stationary. Everything is in

At Lula, Miss., a decided improve-

ing alleviated by the planters, and a

once.

The Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad has been busy with pile-drivers replacing washouts and bridges. The road will probably have trains running into Lula and Clarksdale tomorrow.

It is now believed the water will disappear by May 1, and if this proves

Father of Waters.

The river is falling at Memphis. At

Vicksburg and all points south a steady rise is noted.

HONORS TO VOORHEES' MEMORY

His Body to Lay in State at Indianapolis, Being Shipped Today.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The remains of ex-Senator Voorhees were escorted from this city to his native state of Indiana today. Before being taken to the Terre Haute home the body will lie in state in the capitol building at Indianapolis, at the suggestion of Governor

Mont.

Funeral services were held here at noon today in St. John's Episcopal church, after which the remains

road station and, accompanied by the

Chesapeake and Ohio express at half past 2 o'clock. The honorary pallbearers selected were:

Senators Morrill, Turpie, J. A. Jones,

Wilson and Cullom, ex-Senator Butler,

Judge Lawrence Weldon, Hon. Richard

J. Bright.

Mr. Voorhees was 76 years of age last

been for many years one of the most picturesque figures in the senate. He was born in Liberty township, Butler county, O., and in his early infancy was carried by his parents to their pioneer home in the Walash valley, Indiana.

In 1849 he graduated from the Indiana

Asbury (now DePauw) university, and,

studying law, began his practice in 1851.

His first public office was entered upon in 1858, since which time he had been almost continuously in the public service. That office was United States district attorney for Indiana. His congressional career began in 1861. In 1867 he was elected to the senate by five terms. In his autobiography he said he was defeated for the Forty-third congress by reason of the nomination of Greeley on his (the Democratic) ticket. He came into the senate in 1877 by appointment, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Oliver P. Morton, and served until defeated this year by Fairbanks, Republican.

Because of his long experience in the house he was assigned to the finance committee, an unusual honor in the case of a new senator. He retained his connection with that committee, being its chairman during the last Democratic era in that body, and a leading figure in all debates involving questions of finance or tariff. In one election, 1878, he defeated General Benjamin Harrison for senator.

Senator Voorhees was one of the ar-

THE DOGS OF WAR

barked fiercely on the shores of the Mediterranean last Saturday, and latest advice shows they are not well in hand.

The new council has a splendid chance to make a good record, and East

Liverpool's people will watch its actions closely. Time has come for municipal reform which reforms.

The rise which brought joy to Pittsburg coal men by allowing them to ship their product to market, was the signal for additional sorrow to many a poor fellow in the lowlands of the Mississippi.

SECRETARY WILSON is doing his best to become popular with the farmers, and instead of sending out worthless seeds by the ton is mailing only the best he can obtain. That's another needed improvement.

They say over in Washington that Mr. Hobbs is by no means in love with his new job for the only reason that he has always been an active man of business with no time for idling. Now, if he can only inject some of his energy into the senators, the tariff bill may not be so long delayed.

ROCKY will be the road of the senator who favors too much deliberation in reviewing the tariff. Already are many of them receiving urgent appeals from their constituents pointing out the necessity of promptly passing the bill. There is no doubt of the demand for a protective tariff.

GENERAL WEYLER must move quickly if he would put down the Cuban insurrection before the rainy season begins.

Only a month of weather fit for campaigning remains, and the butcher seems as far from success as ever. Without the resources, promised when he became governor general, he can never hope to subdue the brave patriots.

ALL mankind interested in good government for American municipalities will watch with no little interest the experiment in Chicago. Young Harrison has made promises which will result in a wide open Sunday, as his friends are pleased to call it, and it is extremely doubtful if any Sunday closing law will be enforced or a new one passed.

ALL the Democratic newspapers pretend to believe the Republican party in their state was given an awful drubbing last week, but it is extremely doubtful if they do not take their own assertions with a grain or two of allowance. If they should be so unfortunate as to think they are right someone will be treated to a dose of bitter disappointment next November.

latter that of two to one.

about 18,500 are in Mississippi, nearly

about equally divided between Mis-

acres, one-half of which is in Missis-

etc., is close upon $35,000,000, and here

noted.

to Raise Crops.

MEMPHIS, April 12.—The water in the Mississippi delta is slowly receding.

spirits.

At Greenville the river as well as the backwater surrounding the

once.

railroad has been busy with pledgers replacing washouts and bridges.

The road will probably have trains running into Lula and Clarksdale tomorrow.

It is now believed the water will disappear by May 1, and if this proves

rise is noted.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The remains of ex-Senator Voorhees were escorted

SENATOR VOORHEES.

Funeral services were held here at noon today in St. John's Episcopal church, after which the remains

Senators Morrill, Turpie, A. J. Jones,

Wilson and Cullom, ex-Senator Butler,

J. Bailey.

Mr. Voorhees was 76 years of age last

prominent figures in the public service of the state. He was born in Liberty township, Butler

carried by his parents to his pioneer home in the Wabash valley, Indiana.

In 1849 he graduated from the Indiana

Asbury (now DePauw) university, and

studying law, began his practice in 1851.

gressional career began in 1861. He served in the house of representatives for five terms. In his autobiography

ROW OVER THE SEALS.

Controversy Acute Between the United States and England.

SILSBURY MADE A THREAT.

He Told Olney That Present Regulations Would Not Be Tolerated Further—The Then Secretary Declared They Would Be Maintained—Foster's Hard Task.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The recent appointment of ex-Secretary Foster and ex-Assistant Secretary Hamlin by the president to assist in the negotiations now in progress with Great Britain respecting the Bereng sea seal fisheries is indicative that this long standing diplomatic issue has at last assumed grave importance, and that an earnest effort is to be made to end the present unsatisfactory state of affairs, or at least to place the subject on such a footing before the beginning of the approaching open season as will prevent it from passing into a more serious phase.

The diplomatic correspondence of the past year makes it evident that a severe strain was placed upon the patience of the officials of both the United States and Great Britain, and the warning given early last year by the British government that further proceedings by the American revenue cutters in the line of last year's program could not be tolerated and the intimation from Secretary Olney that there would be no change, unless additional restrictions were imposed upon the British sealing vessels held out latent possibilities of a serious entanglement of the two friendly powers, unless some arrangement can be made before the end of May.

For the reason that ex-Secretary Foster was familiar with the earlier stages of the negotiations leading up to the Paris arbitration, while to ex-Assistant Secretary Hamlin is due in a large measure the credit for the conduct of the negotiations of the last administration on this subject, they have been chosen to assist now in compromising this threatened difficulty.

The trouble appears to have begun principally through the refusal of the British authorities to renew last year's regulations requiring British vessels going into the seal waters to place their firearms under seal, to give effect to the Paris regulation prohibiting the use of such weapons in killing seal. This regulation was laid down on evidence that a large proportion of the seals killed with guns sank and were never recovered, involving wasteful mortality. The British having refused to seal up their guns the United States government attempted the plan of making a most thorough search of every sealing vessel a British sea.

There was justification for a search of the regulations, but again the British government protested, claiming that British vessels were thereby subjected to unnecessary and most vexatious detention; that their catches were overhauled and thrown into confusion and that the only result was the discovery of one skin, in which the American boarding officer thought he saw a shot wound and of a log book a few days in years in entries. Yet for this 26 out of 29 British vessels in the seal waters were searched 82 times, one vessel being boarded six times in 24 days.

Secretary Olney on the other hand justified the course of the revenue officers by pointing out that all of the three seized vessels were convicted in British courts.

He also gave some startling figures to show the need of the additional revenue regulations, which he invited the British government to accept. From actual count he showed that in 1905 no less than 28,000 dead seal pups were found on the Seal islands, which had perished from starvation because their mothers had been killed at sea by sealing vessels. Also it was stated that in the same season the vessels had taken 44,169 skins, as against 31,585 in the previous year, and Secretary Olney asserted that if the killing was to go on at this rate the total destruction of the seal herd would be accomplished in the course of about two more seasons. To make the showing worse from our point of view, it was stated that the lawful catch on the Seal islands had largely fallen off.

Efforts were made to devise some way of ensuring the seal against the use of firearms by poachers, but they came to nothing, and the upshot was that both sides stood firm, the British warning against further indiscriminate search of British vessels and Secretary Olney standing on our right to make it. Meanwhile an expert commission sent out by both governments made an exhaustive report tending to sustain Secretary Olney's assertions regarding the probable extermination of the seals under present conditions and it must be upon this basis that the negotiations will now proceed.

SOUTHERN TRAINS COLLIDE.

Three Persons Killed and Six Injured Near Charlotte, N. C.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 12.—North-bound Florida Central No. 36, on the Southern railway, and local southbound passenger train No. 11 collided at Harborside, a small town about 13 miles north of this city, killing three persons and injuring six.

The killed are: T. Klingman Benton of Charlotte, aged 35, postal clerk on No. 11. Titus Rudy of Forest Hill, Concord. Will Donaldson, fireman on No. 36. Postal Clerk Benton suffered a horrible death. His legs were pinned so close to the boiler of one of the engines that he was being burned by the heat and steam. He begged piteously to his rescuers to cut off his legs and extricate him. Although every effort was made to release the suffering man, it was an hour and a half before he was taken out. He lived but 15 minutes longer.

Hunting a Lucky Pennsylvanian.

ROY, N. Y., April 12.—A. J. Dwyer of New Orleans is in this city searching for John C. King of Duquesne, Pa., who has disappeared and is supposed to have come to Roy. A brother of King had recently left a fortune of about $100,000, to which the missing man is the sole heir.

WASHINGTON C. H., O., April 12.—Robert A. Robinson, for many years cashier of the old People's and Drovers' bank of this city, has been found guilty of embezzling $3,000 of the bank's funds. He was placed under bonds for $20,000 awaiting sentence.

There are 19 other indictments for embezzling standing against him. The verdict was received with surprise, for Robinson had been active in local affairs and for 30 years directed the choir of the Methodist church here.

MUCH BRIBING IN KANSAS.

Startling Revelations Promised In the Legislative Session.

TOPEKA, April 12.—Members of the legislative bribery investigating committee say if the revelations of the past week have been sensational, the developments this will be shocking. It is said that big stories will come out in the testimony relative to alleged bribery in railroad, stockyards and oleomargarine legislation.

William Butler will be put on the stand to tell a story of a proposition made to him that he could have $1,500 cash if he would produce ten members of the house of representatives not already pledged to vote for the Wichita normal school bill.

E. C. Weiler of Cherokee county is expected to make some startling statements. Among others Lot Ravenscroft of Clark county, a member of the committee, will doubtless take the stand. It is said he was approached by the man Boyd, who lobbied in the interests of the text book trust and whose improper proposition to Senator Titus led to the appointment of this committee.

Pressing my hand, but stumbling at my name, "I am so glad you came," she said and smiled. Then turned to greet her other guests, who filed. Past where she stood, fair in her fringed frame Of palms and flowers. And still she spoke the same Sweet, unmeant phrases to the chattering rout. Of well clad drones who compassed her about. And as I listened the remembrance came Of mother eyes that looked at me through tears. And mother arms, so eager to infold The wayward child she never ceased to hold Near to her heart through lonely months and years. The trouble appears to have begun principally through the refusal of the British authorities to renew last year's regulations requiring British vessels clear of the seal waters to place a most thorough search of every sealing vessel a Bering sea.

There was justification for a search of the regulations, but again the British government protested, claiming that British vessels were thereby subjected to unnecessary and most vexatious detention; that their catches were overhauled and thrown into confusion and that the only result was the discovery of one skin, in which the American boarding officer thought he saw a shot wound and of a log book a few days in years in entries. Yet for this 26 out of 29 British vessels in the seal waters were searched 82 times, one vessel being boarded six times in 24 days.

Secretary Olney on the other hand justified the course of the revenue cutters by pointing out that all of the three seized vessels were convicted in British courts.

He also gave some startling figures to show the need of the additional restrictive regulations which he invited the British government to accept. From actual count he showed that in 1906 no less than 28,000 dead seal pups were found on the Seal Islands, which had perished from starvation because their mothers had been killed at sea by sealing vessels. Also it was stated that in the same season the vessels had taken 44,169 skins, as against 31,585 in the previous year, and Secretary Olney asserted that if the killing was to go on at this rate the total destruction of the seal herd would be accomplished in the course of about two more seasons. To make the showing worse from our point of view, it was stated that the lawful catch on the Seal Islands had largely fallen off.

Efforts were made to devise some way of ensuring the seal against the use of firearms by poachers, but they came to nothing, and the upshot was that both sides stood firm, the British warning against further indiscriminate search of British vessels and Secretary Olney standing on our right to make it. Meanwhile an expert commission sent out by both governments made an exhaustive report tending to sustain Secretary Olney's assertions regarding the probable extermination of the seals under present conditions and it must be upon this basis that the negotiations will now proceed.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 12.—North-bound Florida Special No. 36, on the Southern railway, and local southbound passenger train No. 11 collided at Harborsburg, a small town about 13 miles north of this city, killing three persons and injuring six.

The killed are: T. Klingman Benton of Charlotte, aged 55, postal clerk on No. 11. T. R. Kady of Forest Hill, Concord. Will Davidson, fireman on No. 36. Postal Clerk Benton suffered a horrible death. His legs were pinioned so close to the boiler of one of the engines that he was being burned by the heat and steam. He begged piteously to his rescuers to cut off his legs and extricate him. Although every effort was made to release the suffering man, it was an hour and a half before he was taken out. He lived but 15 minutes longer.

Pressing my hand, but stumbling at my name, "I am so glad you came," she said and smiled. Then turned to greet her other guests, who filed past where she stood, fair in her rounded frame Of palms and flowers. And still she spoke the same Sweet, unmeant phrases to the chattering rout Of well clad drones who compassed her about. And as I listened the remembrance came Of mother eyes that looked at me through tears. And mother arms, so eager to unfold The wayward child she never ceased to hold Near to her heart through lonely months and years. And mother lips, too tremulous to frame Those silly words, "I am so glad you came!" —L. Weston in "The Quilting Bee."
